FIFTEEN CENTS

Snowmobile's getaway vehicle

According to Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller, an unsuccessful house-burglar made his get-a-way on a snowmobile stolen from a neighbor of his intended victim.

At 7:21 p.m., on Jan. 11, the unexpected return of the residents of an Antioch home, scared away Joseph Emmerich, 17, Antioch, who was attempting to break into the house.

The homeowners made a complaint to the police and at 8:45 p.m. that same evening, a neighbor, Elliot J. Kull, reported that a snowmobile had been stolen from its parking place beside his garage.

After an intensive, around the clock, police investigation, the Antioch police located the stolen snowmobile on Tuesday, Jan. 13, and questioned Emmerich, who, according to Miller, admitted to the attempted break-in and also the theft of the snowmobile.

Emmerich was taken to the Lake County jail where he was released on a $5,000 recognizance bond, pending a court appearance.

Fund raising dinner is planned by Burke

Phil Burke, one of the six Antioch residents who has announced that he is a candidate for mayor, claims to be the first candidate that announced his candidacy on Sept. 30, 1979.

Burke is relatively unknown in the village of Antioch, although he was born here, he has been away from the village for 37 years.

Burke, like the other four non-incumbents, says that he is against a full time mayor but he does say that a business administrator might be called for when the village can afford one.

"I am concerned about power politics that do not involve the people," Burke says.

He also would like to see additional business come Antioch's way but is against the use of industrial revenue bonds to entice new business.

This election may turn into a "can you top this," contest since Burke says that, if elected he will turn his entire salary back to the village, using as much of the mayor's $200 expense account per month as is necessary.

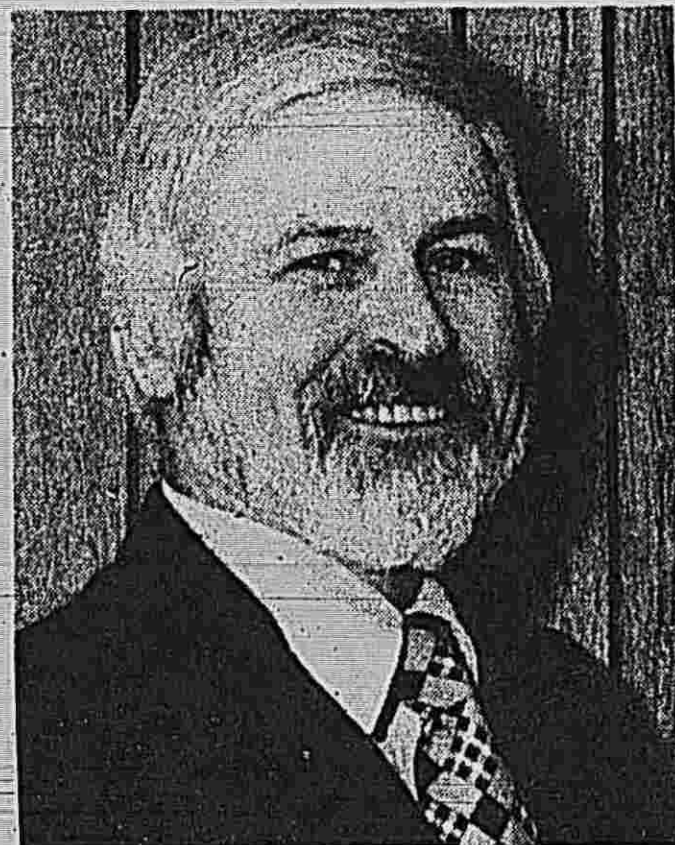

"I am concerned what that account entails though," he says.

Earlier, other candidates Robert Wilton and Ray Toft announced that they would return all salaries above the $4,000 set by an ordinance passed two years ago.

Other candidates, Bruce Jablonski and Henry Gillman are also against a full-time mayor.

A fund raising dinner to back Burke's campaign will be held at 7:30 p.m., on Saturday, Jan. 31, at The Country House.

Village residents and township residents alike are urged to attend the fund raiser.

EXPLOSION HAZARD

An explosion hazard has been found in more than 600,000 liquid propane (LP) gas water heaters which contain thermostats manufactured by the White-Rodgers Division of Emerson Electric Co. of St. Louis. According to William L. Kempiners, director of the Illinois Dept. of Public Health, the water heaters involved were sold between 1961 and 1968, predominantly to rural homeowners, by the A.O. Smith Corp. of Kankakee, by Sears, Roebuck and Co. of Chicago and by other manufacturers and retailers. Any consumer who believes that his water heater contains one of the potentially hazardous thermostats should telephone a toll-free "hotline" at White-Rodgers (800-325-9589).

OUTDOOR RECREATION

Gov. James R. Thompson announced the allocation of grants to 49 Illinois communities and recreational agencies totaling $8 million to buy or develop land for public outdoor recreation. The Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund reimbursement grants have been allocated and approved by the Illinois Dept. of Conservation to 23 land acquisition projects, which will add 768 acres of new parklands throughout the state, and to 26 development programs.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: JANUARY 22, 1931

Clothing of clients amounting to about $1,000 and personal goods valued at $300 were totally destroyed Monday morning about 3 o'clock by fire which also ruined the building in which the Antioch Cleaners and Tailors conducted their business. The building, valued at about $700, was owned by L.B. Grice, and was covered by insurance. $2,500 insurance was carried also on the contents of the shop by John Trusch, manager of the Antioch Cleaners and Tailors. The blaze was thought to have originated from an over-heated stove, as Harry Petzke had re-filled the stove with a load of coal at 10 o'clock, according to Mr. Trusch's instructions.

On Wednesday, January 28 the house of representatives will vote on Thomas J. O'Grady's bill on whether the prohibition law in this state should be repealed or not. In a letter to the Antioch News Representative Lyons said... "I will be guided by the wishes of the majority... I will vote to repeal the search and seizure act."

Reasons for the present depression were discussed by John Thompson in an address before a group of forty men at the meeting of the Men's Club of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening. "The economic and industrial depression is not confined to the United States alone. Other countries of the world are equally hard hit."

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, widow of the former President returned to New York from Puerto Rico where she had been visiting her son, Governor Roosevelt. She attended memorial services on the 12th anniversary of her husband's death.

John Hodgedon of Los Angeles has designed a dirigible. Among its many novel features are the motors in the wings.

30 YEARS AGO: JANUARY 18, 1951

A 25 percent increase in telephone rates for principal classes of service in Antioch, Lake Villa, Grayslake and Round Lake has been asked by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

He was taken by the Antioch Rescue Squad to St. Therese Hospital where he is showing satisfactory improvement.

Veteran Antioch newsman Joe Hunley joins the WKRS radio news staff beginning Monday, Jan. 18.

Flu care given

The Lake County Health Department has documented definite influenza cases of the A/Bangkok type within Lake County. This is the same type that is causing regional outbreaks within Illinois, and the majority of influenza cases in the U.S.

The A/Bangkok strain is included in the "flu shots" available this year, as well as the A/Brazil and B/Singapore strains.

Influenza or "flu" is an acute, infectious disease of the respiratory tract. The symptoms include abrupt onset of fever, chills, headache, muscle pains and weakness.

Cough is almost always present, often severe. Nasal congestion and sore throat are also common, especially in the later phases of the disease. In most people, recovery occurs in two to seven days.

Pneumonia can be a severe complication.

Steven R. Potsic, M.D., M.P.H., executive director, Lake County Health Department, states, "Since most people with flu recover within a week, rest in bed, drinking more fluids, and taking aspirin for high fever and severe headache is the best treatment."

"However, for individuals with any secondary symptoms such as earache, chest pain, labored breathing, or 'flu' in the very young, the elderly or individuals with chronic illness, one's personal physician should be contacted."

Teen Canteen means fun for area youth

by CAROLE RISK

Cedar Village, the new residence for senior citizens, located in Lake Villa, is considered so good that it rated a writeup in the Chicago Sun-Times, wouldn't it be nice if Antioch Seniors could have something like this.

This project was funded with federal tax dollars, not local property taxes; it would be even nicer to see some of those dollars that are due on April 15 go into housing for such deserving citizens.

Projects like this are certainly more important than some of the things that the federal government underwrites, and I think that the seniors deserve all the benefits our society can give them.

After reading in the Antioch Reporter that Antioch Township was likely to have the highest multiplier in Lake County (1.7649), I thought here we go again, after the increases of 1978 and 1979 there was hope that taxes would level off, but, it doesn't look that way after all.

This increase can be disputed by anyone who pays property taxes in Antioch Township by attending a hearing on Feb. 5, at 10:30 a.m. in the County of Lake E, Assembly Room, 10th floor, County Building, Waukegan, Ill.

You have to discuss the multiplier increase and not any other tax problem, if you want to speak up.

The time of the hearing is awkward for most people, but if you can attend, do it, the more taxpayer interest shown the better.

It was ironic that on the same page as the article on the multiplier increase, that there should be another story regarding state grants to libraries.

Antioch was among the missing on the list of recipients.

After a little checking I found that the reason for this omission is that our library manages to provide its services for less per person than other districts, so we are not eligible to get some of our own tax dollars back from the state.

With taxes on my mind here is a loose quote from Sun-Times cartoon that seemed very appropriate "We still have life and liberty, but it is becoming harder to afford pursuit of happiness."

On the lighter side, I would like to mention Teen Canteen, a once a week social gathering, that meets on Friday and is exclusively for sixth, seventh and eighth graders.

Mr. Wagoner and Mr. Ochwat have put a lot of effort into making Fridays a day to look forward to for these kids.

Admission is $2, and refreshments are 25 cents.

Teen Canteen starts at 7 p.m. and is over at 10 p.m.

The kids can dance to their favorite music or go into the game room for ping-pong, air hockey, etc. or stand around and shoot the breeze if they want.

Students at the upper grade can bring guests that are from the same grades from other schools.

Teen Canteen is a well-chaperoned night of fun for a sometimes hard to please age group.

So a couple of pats on the back for Mr. Ochwat and Mr. Wagoner and a few more pats for the parents who pitch in and help.

Grapplers take Lake Zurich

Antioch wrestlers ran their conference record to 3-1 with a resounding 54-10 win over the Lake Zurich Bears Jan. 16. Jan. 17 the Sequoits traveled to Palatine and defeated Glenbrook North 42-18, but fell to state power Palatine 32-18. Antioch is now 11-6 in dual meets.

Triple winners for the Sequoits were the Bessette brothers, George at 145 and Ted at 185. George scored a fall, superior decision and a decision. Ted continues his impressive record scoring two falls and a forfeit.

Jan. 23 the Sequoits travel to Grant for "the dual meet". The rivalry between the two schools is at its best on the wrestling mats.

Over the last 10 years it has been one of the finest spectator events in high school sports. A large enthusiastic crowd always adds to the action.

This year Grant is the definite favorite fielding a veteran team against the young Sequoits.

A woman's place

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

My editor has asked me to tell the readers of the News that to date there has been no intentional reporting of any candidate's, village or township, being endorsed by anybody.

Congratulations are in order to Karla and Kimberly Herbst, Alma Terrace, who both made the fall honor roll at Northeast Missouri State University.

Looks like brains run in the family.

Here's one Antioch resident whose jumping, if not for joy, for the U.S. Army.

Its Tim Mahoney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mahoney, who recently received a parachutist badge upon the completion of a three-week airborne course at Fort Benning, Ga.

Doris Veith, president of St. Peter's Women's Club has asked me to extend an invitation to all the women of St.

Peter's Church to attend the Women's Club meeting at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 3, at Father Frawley Hall.

Doris hopes all the gals will bring their husbands along to that evening's Valentine's party.

I know Annie Mae will be there. Never let it be said that I refused any of the delicious wine, cheese, coffee and cake that Doris tells me will be served.

Joe Gutowski, whose wife Louise is in a wheelchair, reports that although there are some handicapped parking areas at the Moose Club, State Bank, Ben Franklin, and other places, its still very difficult to find an empty one when its really needed.

Maybe the cars parked in them should be checked more often since Joe reports that they often do not display the handicapped stickers that they're supposed to have.

I guess Bill Groeninger saved the night at the Jaycee's DSA Banquet when MC Ron Van Skoroc came down with pneumonia.

Speaking of the Jaycees, its National Jaycee Week. Antioch certainly has benefited from all the good done by their own Jaycee group.

With food still, as always, on my mind, I wonder if all you good Antioch cooks know that the Illinois Beef Auxiliary will hold the 1981 Northern Illinois District Beef Cook-off Contest on Saturday, March 28, at Harvard Junior High School, Harvard.

Cash prizes will be awarded with a $100, top prize and the winner will be eligible for the Illinois cook-off in May and maybe the national one in September.

So dig out your favorite recipes and contact Mrs. Jim Grenlund, 19551 Capron Rd., Capron, Ill., 61012, for details.

Antioch's lucky to have so many dedicated civil servants. I see that Blaine Ring, who has served on the township board for 18 years and Irv Carey, who has served 20 years are running for another term.

I hear there was a long line of candidates waiting to file papers at the village hall Monday morning, some of them arriving before Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

Remarks that there were more people in the village hall than in the restaurants around town brought a quip from Bob Wilton, "Maybe that's because they're serving free coffee."

David Hendricksen, who was raised in Antioch, and a former member of the Community Baptist Church, Silver Lake, Wis., is returning along with his family to take over the pastorate of the Community Baptist Church.

"A newspaper dedicated to people marching to their own drummers."

St. Peter's Blood Drive is set for Jan. 24

St. Peter's parish will hold its ninth annual clinic for persons wishing to donate blood.

The date is Saturday, Jan. 24, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"A continuing supply of fresh blood is needed and parish and community blood drives are the greatest source of this supply," a spokesman for the American Red Cross said.

"Your pint of blood will ensure your family, including parents, parents-in-laws, grandparents and grandparents-in-law, wherever they may reside, that any need they might have for blood during the coming year will be fulfilled, be it one pint or 100 pints," he added. Persons 17 years to 65 can participate as donors.

If each person in the parish who is eligible gives that one precious pint, our quota of 220 pints will be reached and all parishioners will then be guaranteed of the availability of blood for their needs and those of their families. A minimum of 352 volunteered donors are needed to assure fulfillment of the quota.

Co-chairladies of this year's blood drive are Mrs. Ellen Barr Ipsen, 395-2884 and Mrs. Gloria Grealis, 395-1643. If you have any questions call them.

Although he's retiring, Vos still a lumberman

An era in local retailing and construction is about to end with the pending closure of Lake Villa Lumber, owned and operated by Ed Vos of Antioch.

"I'll tell you one thing," Vos said shifting a familiar cigar from one side of his mouth to another. "If I was 45 years younger, I'd never sell."

"I hate to do it, but there's no other way," said Vos, owner and operator of the yard since 1947. "I've tried to sell the yard as a going business for five years, but haven't been successful."

After the completion of his liquidation sale, Lake Villa Lumber and Coal will close its doors forever.

Vos sold Antioch Lumber and Coal Co. in 1973 after a 52-year association with the business. At that time he was able to devote more time to the Lake Villa yard and one of his three hobbies, travel.

Vos chuckled as he recalled his acquisition of the Lake Villa Lumber Co. "We did it on a handshake," he said relating to his purchase from a long-time associate and friendly competitor, Rush Husey.

"We even had the same law firm representing both sides at the closing. You can't do business that way today."

Liquidation of Lake Villa Lumber will mean permanent retirement for Vos, one of Lake County's most prominent businessmen since 1929.

"It's about time," the jovial lumberman noted, giving his wife Lu a glance. "I'm going to be 79."

Vos attributes the success of the independent lumber yard to sticking to a tried and true formula — providing its customers with the highest quality, personal service and concentrating on the local market.

He also attributed a large measure of the company's success to two employees, Ollie Martin, who has been with the firm for 40 years and became manager seven years ago, and Jeanne Willett.

Builders and do-it-yourselfers throughout northwest Lake County know Ollie and Jeanne on a first name basis and rely on their knowledge of lumber and building materials.

Despite operating two businesses for a number of years, Vos took time for community affairs and two of his other hobbies, hunting and golf. He was on the Antioch Village Board for 15 years and a trustee of the Lake County Water District. Vos helped organize the Antioch Lions Club in the 1930's and is one of three original members still active in the club, the others being Irving Carey and Jim Horan.

Vos has been an official of First National Bank of Antioch for a number of years and now serves as chairman of the board.

When the liquidation sale concludes, Vos will be observing his 60th year in the lumber business. Ed Vos may be retired then, but he'll still consider himself a lumberman.

Teens lose at 'Bi-State Bingo!'

ANTIOCH TEENS DRINK, DRIVE — Car driven by 17 year old Antioch teen, carrying four Antioch teenage passengers, collided with another car driven by 18 year old Palos Heights youth, on Hwy. 50, in Wisconsin. Illinois youths drink, drive over border, causing rise in accident, incident rate

BY GLORIA DAVIS

Have Illinois youths between 18 and 21 abused the drinking privilege that they half lost and half gained on Jan. 1, 1980?

When the Illinois Legislature saw fit to raise the drinking age to 21 but Wisconsin left theirs at 18, the weekend traffic from all points in Illinois headed towards the state line and money conscious entrepreneurs either regearred or opened new bars especially slanted towards the expected teenage drinker.

Since then droves of teenagers have filled the highways between the two states.

They are heading down Rt. 173 or Hwy. C to Twin Lakes where Acting Police Chief, Sgt. Dan Clebos reports that "There is a noticeable increase in liquor related activity involving kids under 21."

Twin Lakes was the scene of two fatal accidents involving drinking this year.

When asked if the Antioch Police Dept. found that drunken driving arrests of kids returning from Wisconsin had increased, Chief Chuck Miller said, "That's hard to say since it's pretty hard for them to speed or show any drunken driving signs, since the traffic on Rt. 83, all the way through town, is bumper to bumper after 1 p.m. on the weekends. It's hard for them to go over five miles an hour."

"It looks like the tollway at rush hour," he continued.

"It's when they get past Rt. 173 that they let loose and have the accidents deeper into Lake County," he said.

The drinkers that are heading down Rt. 12 towards Lake Geneva seem to be primarily those in their middle 20s with the younger drinkers heading more towards Twin Lakes and Salem.

The Walworth County Sheriff's Dept. reports less accidents but a higher ratio of fatalities this year, that left 28 people dead; 16 of the drivers in these accidents had been drinking, eight were from Illinois and 75 percent of these had been drinking.

But Rt. 12 leading directly over the state line evidently still draws the younger crowd since Richmond Police Chief Andrew Mayer says besides the taverns, the "kids coming from Wilmot, Majestic and Alpine ski areas also create a problem."

"A vast majority of our problems are with Illinois residents," says Mayer.

Mayer says that most of his problems involve open alcohol in vehicles. He quotes an increase from 96 citations for this in 1977 to a 200 percent increase with 285 such violations recorded in 1980.

Another problem is that Illinois residents under 21 can go over the state line, purchase liquor and bring it back to drink it in a state where this "partying" is illegal.

It's the less than five mile stretch on Rt. 83 between the state line and Hwy. 50, that has 12 bars, more than two per mile, to entice the Illinois drinking youths, that seems to be the center of their activity on the weekends.

There are other bars geared to the teenage crowd which draws deeper into Salem Township.

Besides the accessibility of "booze" some of these bars feature rock bands for the music lovers and a mechanical bull for the teenage urban cowboy.

In the last couple of months, Rt. 83, among other accidents, was the scene of a seven car pile-up and a three car accident in which three Illinois teenagers were killed and one critically injured.

All those involved in these accidents were Illinois residents under 21 that had just left one of the bars on Rt. 83.

The question whether one solution to the problem is for Wisconsin to do like all the states that surround it did and retract the drinking privilege when those under 21 blatantly abuse it, is being heard more and more often in louder, angry tones.

Wisconsin residents claim they are afraid to go on the aforementioned highways on the weekends, in fear of their lives and Illinois residents are also suffering from the hazard of the drunken drivers now being placed on their roads for longer stretches because of the distance the kids are now traveling for their weekend fun.

DRUNKEN WAY HOME — Sign on Rt. 83 telling drinking teens that they are returning to their home state which prohibits drinking under 21 years of age. Because of heavy traffic at this point, teens who are going slow then, may never see sign again after being involved in one of the many accidents that occur as they drive deeper into Illinois. — Photo by Gloria Davis

THREE NEVER RETURNED — Three Illinois teens were killed and one critically injured after leaving a "rock" bar on Rt. 83 in Salem. Their car went over the center line and a truck, containing three 19 year olds from Illinois, went over the top of the Cadillac they were driving. Those in the truck had also just left a bar on Rt. 83. — Photo by Gloria Davis

'Bullshot Crummond' next show at PM&L

"Bullshot Crummond," a British comedy, will be the next play to be seen at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. in Antioch.

The farce will open there Saturday night, Feb. 14. Following evening performances will take place on Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 20, 21, 27, and 28; and there will also be a matinee on Sunday, Feb. 22. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

The afternoon presentation is an innovation of PM&L's current Season 20, and has thus far proved to be popular among the many theatergoers who have not found it possible or convenient to come to performances on Friday and Saturday nights.

The plot of "Bullshot Crummond" virtually defies description or explanation. Essentially, the comedy is a parody of the old-time low-budget grade "B" detective movie.

The play is a spoof of Bulldog Drummond, the celebrated British sleuth of another era. It might be said, if this analogy helps anybody, that "Bullshot Crummond" is to Bulldog Drummond what Fearless Fosdick is to Dick Tracy.

The PM&L production is directed by Ken Smouse. His cast includes Bruce Stamm of Round Lake Beach as Bullshot Crummond; Don Beveroth, Paddock Lake, as Otto Von Bruno; Kris Ann Miller, Antioch, as Rosemary Fenton; Gloria Stewart, McHenry, as Lenya Von Bruno; and Keith Boehm, Antioch, as Everyman.

All are seasoned performers, and most of them are well-known to Antioch audiences.

An offbeat comedy, "Bullshot Crummond" is likely to be another PM&L hit. To see it, be sure to call 395-3055 to make your reservation, and to be at the PM&L box office by 8:15 p.m. on the night or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, you plan to enjoy the show.

Seniors enjoy center, though 'hot' overcrowded

Dolly Spiering, president of the American Association of Retired Persons Antioch Chapter 387, welcomed the members when they held their first meeting at the new Antioch Area Senior Center, 817 Holbek Dr., on January 13. A total of 147 members, including 14 new members crowded into the main dining room.

Several expressed their opinion of the center, as being over-crowded, having poor acoustics and being too hot. Turning down the heat, remedied one problem. Carol Easley, coordinator for the Catholic Charities who sponsors the lunches there every weekday, says that she has been told that the sound problem would be solved this month when carpeting is put on the walls and drapes on the windows.

Invited guests were introduced. They were officers from the Zion Chapter No. 25 of AARP, Ruth Johnson, Margaret Perrington and John Kallal.

Esther Aiani also introduced Stanley Ruszewicz of Antioch, a cousin of member Stanley Witkiewicz. He was a guest at the AARP Christmas party and enjoyed himself so much at the time, that he donated $20 to the club and joined this month. When he saw that there was a drive to purchase chairs at the new center, he donated another $20. He was recognized for his generosity.

Mrs. Aiani reported that she had received a check from William E. Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch. The money was for the chapter's "fine contribution to the community".

Larry Klimas read a letter asking AARP members to attend a IRS training class to help other members with their income taxes. The information would be helpful in compiling their own report.

Members were invited to attend the Bi-State Senior Council meeting on Friday, Jan. 16, at the Windjammer Restaurant to exchange ideas.

Blanche Babik announced that 138 members had paid their dues that day. Dues are $2 a year. A member must belong to the National Chapter before they can join the local chapter.

John Wenclawski announced that he was resigning as legislature chairman, due to other commitments. Lorraine Grant of Lindenhurst, will be the new Illinois Legislature chairman and Joseph Tarsa of Paddock Lake, Wis. will be the Wisconsin Legislature chairman.

Glen Peterson reminded the members that they would leave from the water tower near McDonald's on Jan. 23, at 10 a.m. to go to Sara Lee Bakeries to purchase goodies, and then to Hawthorn Shopping Center to shop or have lunch on their own, and then visit Christmas Tree Story House in Mettawa. The Gulan family, a not-for-profit organization display some 200 theme-decorated Christmas trees on the former Adlai Stevenson Estate, south of Route 60 on St. Mary's Rd.

Gail Brandt will be the speaker on dehydrated food and give a taste sampling for Neo-Life Distributor Chris Tapor, at the Jan. 27, AARP meeting, starting at 1 p.m.

Lunch will not be served by the Catholic Charities on AARP meeting days, at least for the present. Coffee and cake will be served as usual, for 35 cents at noon. The board voted to lower the price. Doors will open at 9 a.m. and be open til 5 p.m.

DSA Banquet successful

The Distinguished Service Awards (DSA), banquet was held on Saturday, Jan. 10, at the Country House. It was a successful evening according to Bill Stanley, project chairman.

Bill Brook, featured speaker for the evening, talked about his great love of the Antioch community; how much it has to offer to its people and also how much the people of Antioch have returned to the community. Mr. Brook also made the statement that Antioch is one of the better communities in the area and he is proud to be a part of it.

The master of ceremonies for the evening was Bill Groeninger. Bill presented the awards to the outstanding young leaders of the Antioch community and they are: William E. Anderson, Ronald D. Chilcote, Donald M. Goodwin, Michael P. Gordy and Daniel E. Mikal. A general statement made by the winners was, that they wished to thank those who had nominated them and also the Jaycees for bestowing them the honor.

Three past DSA winners were present at the banquet: Chuck Miller, 1979 winner; Steve Wapon, 1980 winner and 1981 judge and master of ceremonies. Steve Wapon made the comment that he was very pleased with this year's program and hopes that the Antioch Jaycees will stay involved with this project, because it helps the community to recognize the kind of outstanding young leaders we have in our area.

Dee Maras, 6-6 senior forward, had 21 points and 11 rebounds to lead the way. Pete Weber, 6-1 senior guard, had 19 points, with John Ploss, 6-8 senior center, scoring 17. Ploss also had eight rebounds.

MARSHALL OLSON, 5-11 senior guard, contributed to Antioch's effort with a real good job at playmaker and on defense.

"It was a real team effort," Andrews said. "The whole team played really well on defense."

After a close first half in which both teams were playing tight, Antioch came out more relaxed in the second half and opened the game up.

They built their lead to as many as 18 points in the final quarter as Ploss and Maras had great inside games for the Sequoits.

"They did a tremendous job," he said. "The two big kids were dynamite on the boards."

THE INSIDE game dominance was reflected in Antioch holding a 32-20 rebounding advantage.

Jan. 17 the Sequoits traveled to Woodstock and came back with a 77-56 non-conference win over the Blue Streaks.

Once again, it was Antioch's big men which keyed the victory.

Maras had 26 points and 12 rebounds, with Ploss scoring 24 and pulling down 13 boards. As a team, Antioch outrebounded Woodstock 33-20.

"The overall general floor play by all of the players was excellent," Andrews said.

THE GOOD floor game by the Sequoits was shown in that they committed just seven turnovers despite Woodstock pressing and trapping on defense throughout the night.

Weber and Dean Haviland led the ballhandling chores against the pressure. Haviland also contributed eight points.

The double victories upped Antioch's overall record to 8-5. They are 5-0 in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

Antioch's varsity basketball team puts its unbeaten Northwest Suburban Conference record on the line when Grant comes to town Friday, Jan. 23.

The Sequoits continue a home stand with a non-conference game Saturday, Jan. 24, against Lake Forest.

"They're playing everybody tough," said Roger Andrews about Grant. The Bulldogs have lost seven games, six by seven points or less.

Girls double Lake Zurich

Antioch's varsity girls basketball team will meet one of its toughest opponents to date when the Sequoits travel to Wauconda Tuesday, Jan. 27.

They were scheduled to take on Grayslake Jan. 20.

"We have to keep them out of the middle," Lorraine Dresser, Antioch head coach said of the key to stopping the Bulldogs. "They have three tall girls and if you let them inside, you're in trouble."

"I expect a close game," she added.

THE SEQUITs upped their league record to 2-1 with a 52-26 victory over Lake Zurich Jan. 13 in Antioch.

Tracey Manuel paced the Sequoit scoring with 15 points. Kathy Bailey had 12 with Suzanne Fritz adding 10.

Guard Chris Byrne, despite only scoring three points, had an outstanding floor game at her playmaking position.

Renee Tell also contributed with a good overall game as she scored seven points.

Antioch opened the first quarter taking a 20-2 lead and expanded it to 36-7 at halftime.

FROM THEN on out, Dresser used her bench freely in coasting to the victory.

Antioch defeated McHenry 55-27 on Jan. 17 in a non-conference game at the loser's gym.

Manuel was the dominating factor for Antioch as she scored 20 points and pulled down 21 rebounds. Fritz had 15 points with Bailey adding nine.

Antioch switched to a man to man defense in the second quarter and began pulling away after leading 11-10 after the first quarter.

The defensive pressure, plus Manuel's inside dominance, kept Antioch rolling culminating in the fourth quarter when the visitors outscored their hosts 21-6.

The wins upped Antioch's overall record to 8-3.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By SALOME

FOR RELEASE WEEK OF JAN. 26, 1981

If your birthdate occurs this week...
Star light, Star bright, is that a comet I see tonight?
Or is it just another new space satellite?

Aries Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Mars
Though wintry weather is still pretty much with us, the Arian Ram can really be a hearth-warming companion. The romantic Ram can pull his or her wool over any ice-type situation this week.

Taurus Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus
The Taurean Bull is tempted to charge into a slow-moving situation and goad it along. Red Flag Warning! Rushing, a developing romance can get you the bum's rush instead. Let it happen naturally.

Gemini May 21 - June 20 Mercury
Gemini Twins find this week a mixed blessing. A series of opportunities presents you with difficult choices. Romantic matters appear to be the least confusing but appearances can be deceiving.

Cancer June 21 - July 22 Moon
Moon Children are impatient to get started on spring though winter is still with us. Thursday brings a confusing message. Everything eventually falls into place. A loved one's ideas appear to be sound.

Leo July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun
Though you're not prone to hide your light, this would be a good week to take some quiet inventory of yourself. Recalculate those plans and consider changing them. Leos who fall in love this week seek approval.

Virgo Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury
You're going to love yourself this week. It's perfect for indulging your need to straighten out your personal life. All those unspoken feelings can now be voiced. Someone approaches you with romantic feelings.

Libra Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus
You come into your glory this week. It's the Libran way to want to weigh everything and this week everything you assess becomes an asset. What you accept without checking could check your progress.

Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Pluto
Suddenly, you're just so busy you don't know how you'll be able to handle all your new obligations. Relax. Work step by step and it will all work out. Romantic situations can be frantic situations.

Sagittarius Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter
You have an urge to merge and the surge of your emotions is something you've been waiting to experience for some time. However, though love beckons, caution reckons high. Be sure feelings are mutual.

Capricorn Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 Saturn
The Capricornian Goat feels like kicking up a fuss over any little thing. Blame it on your stars. Things don't seem to be moving fast enough. But they are moving. Proof of progress comes by Friday. Charm pays off.

Aquarius Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 Uranus
Though you're tempted to follow advice from someone you never quite trusted, resist. Your first instincts are the rights ones. Turn your attentions to someone whose attentions have been turned to you.

Pisces Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 Neptune
Someone you expected to come through with a long-awaited promise will probably disappoint you. Prepare to have to make other plans without that person. Piscean Fishes can be adept at scoring net successes.
